

THE PUMA

EL PUMA

BY MARCELA SAID

EMA and OLIVIER, a Franco-Chilean couple, live on the shores of Lake Pirihueico, in the heart of a nature as fascinating as it is formidable. Since the death of their seven-year-old son, they have led parallel lives: she dedicates herself to collecting lovers, and Olivier to his passion for hunting. This year, their obsession is a puma. They invite ROSE and VINCE, British friends, to join the hunt. The expedition takes an unexpected turn, and the two couples and their guide, DANIEL, must confront their own demons to survive.
