

MOSS

MOLSA

BY JUDITH COLELL

ANNA celebrates her sixth birthday and, as a present, she wants a pet. She chooses MOSS, a puppy who has already been abandoned three times. Anna falls in love at first sight and promises never to abandon him, but war breaks out and a big explosion separates them. Moss becomes a street dog. He joins a curious gang of strays: SPICY, ALLEY, TRAINS and MINT. With them, after some adventures, he arrives at a prison camp. There he meets LUCAS, Anna's former teacher. Meanwhile, Anna loses her parents, lives in an orphanage and loses her ability to speak due to a trauma. At the end of the war, Moss and Lucas look for Anna. When they finally find her, Anna recovers her speech and her happiness.
