

FRANCISCO

BY SERGIO AVELLANEDA BELMONTE

Antonia, San Gabriel's football team coach, is visited by her four sisters after their father, the club's founder, passes away. They come together to fulfil his last wish: to scatter his ashes on the pitch. What should have been a peaceful farewell turns into a tense evening. As they reminisce about their childhood connected to football, Antonia relives her complicated relationship with her father, sparking uncontrollable anger. Only the love between sisters can calm her emotions during this reunion filled with nostalgia and conflict.
