

PRECARITY FAIR

BY TBC

Mel, a broke young woman, sets up a foundation to help migrants with the best of intentions, although she has no clue about their reality. On her way she crosses paths with Oli, a young Filipino girl with a talent for music who dreams of becoming a singer and leaving precariousness behind. The girls will have to join forces and make the craziest decisions to cope with adult life, a life they have no choice but to be part of.
