

EIGHTEEN

DIECIOCHO

BY HAMMUDI AL-RAHMOUN FONT

Cèlia and Moha meet in a kitchen. For Cèlia, this job is a sentence: she has to do community service hours, imposed by a judge. For Moha, this job is an award that brings him closer to his goal of getting his ID papers. Although it may not seem like it, they have a lot in common, as they discover when they overcome their prejudices and begin to see themselves as they really are. "EIGHTEEN" is an intimate series that deals with the dreams, prejudices and loneliness of the young protagonists as they discover first love.
