

STATU'KUO

BY DAVID TORÍO

In a future Madrid where university education is a luxury, Leo and his friend Jade compete for two scholarships offered by the TV contest Alta Costura to study fashion. However, during the final, Jade openly challenges the contest's rules, triggering a violent response from security. With Jade disqualified and anger burning within him, Leo faces the question: how far is he willing to go to win the scholarship that could change his life?
