BY PAU BERLANGA

A nameless character leaves the apartment. Anwar rents a four-bedroom apartment. He lives in one of the rooms and sublets the other three. One is now empty. Anwar is a young man obsessed with fitness who works remotely as a Facebook ads manager and is driven by a hyperproductive mindset. He despises free time. Ivan and Silvia are a young couple, sedentary and numbed, striving to like each other. Fernando, a middle-aged Chilean man, is a fast-food delivery driver who has fallen in love with an online sex worker. An empty room, two visitors, and the search for a new tenant.
