

LONG HAS BEEN THE SUMMER

LARGO HA SIDO EL VERANO

BY ROGER SIMON

Gabriel is an old man who currently lives alone in a very difficult situation. Due to his physical condition, he has become a dependent person who can no longer take care of himself without the help of others. Faced with this situation, Gabriel takes refuge in his memory and nostalgia and does not accept that a new stage has begun for him. Over time and with the help of his daughter, he will learn that accepting this new situation and leaving the past behind is the first step to being happy again.
