BY ADRIANA GALICIA

On a hot afternoon, Gabi sneaks into her partner Oscar's house, knowing his friends will arrive soon. Despite Oscar's insistence that she leave, Gabi lingers, seeking excuses to stay.

As tensions rise, she prepares to go but is forced to kill a cockroach that exposes Oscar's intense phobia. The toxic insecticide irritates Gabi, adding to her growing insecurity and distress.

When Oscar's friends arrive, she hides in his bedroom, struggling to remain silent. Overwhelmed and rejected, Gabi undergoes a grotesque transformation into a giant cockroach, confronting Oscar and his unbearable fear of insects.
