

INSIDE ENDINS

BY DEMBO DIABY

Mariama holds a letter with trembling hands. Nervous, she enters the family apartment. The atmosphere overwhelms her, and she takes refuge in her room. Determined, she returns to the living room and announces: "I have something to tell you." Her gaze evokes a memory from 2005, when she was 7 years old. Through a Mini-DV tape, we see Mariama and her brother Assane playing while their uncle records them. Omar obsessively focuses on Mariama, creating an uncomfortable atmosphere. Back in the present, Mariama reads a letter revealing that she was sexually abused by Uncle Omar. The letter expresses her personal experience and denounces the taboo surrounding child sexual abuse.

FICTION
SHORT FILMS
UPCOMING

Written by Carme Diaby

Cast

Carme Diaby

Produced by Alba Sotorra

Sales Agent
Contact producer

Genre
Social

Audience
+16

Running time
15

Format
Digital 5.1
Colour
4 K