

THE SILENCE OF THE EARTH

EL SILENCI DE LA TERRA

BY FRANK GUTIÉRREZ

Berta Cáceres in Honduras, Paulino Guajajara in Brazil, and Aldo Zamora in México, gave their lives defending the Earth. These three environmental activists were brutally murdered for opposing the interests of large multinational corporations and their local allies. But who is behind these crimes and why do they enjoy almost total impunity? What objectives are the orchestrators of these crimes pursuing by murdering these activists? And, above all, what consequences are there for our planet and the future of humanity?
