

WHO WE ARE QUI SOM?

BY SALVADOR SUNYER

Blai (43) and Camille (43), an artistic and romantic couple, have earned the admiration of the European scene thanks to the unclassifiable shows of their theater company, Baro d'evol. When the Festival d'Avignon, one of the most important in the world, commissions them a new work, the couple feels the need to find a renewed sense of their existence as artists, partners and parents in order to provide answers to the concerns and fears that torment us as human beings.
