

FICTION
SHORT FILMS
FINISHED

Written by

Adrià Guxens, Kuni Tomita

Cast

Kuni Tomita

Produced by

Limmat Films
Forest Film Studio
Batiak Films
Almar Producciones

Sales Agent

Selected Films

Genre

Biography
Art

Audience

Teenagers

Running time

15

Original version

Spanish
Japanese
Mandarin

Format

Digital 5.1
Dolby Stereo
Colour
2 K
4 K

KOKUHAKU

BY ADRIÀ GUXENS

After being rejected by his parents for his homosexuality, Tadashi leaves home to try to fulfil his dream of becoming an onnagata: an actor who represents female characters in the tradition of kabuki theatre. However, not being part of any lineage of performers and being half-Japanese, half-Spanish, he is not accepted in traditional theatre circles, so he decides to go to Spain in search of a better future. A few years later, now living in Madrid, Tadashi will meet Liu, a young Chinese journalist who will interview him and not will only make him go back in time to relive his most intimate memories, but also change him forever.