BY SERGI PÉREZ GÓMEZ

Manel, curator of the world's largest art gallery, is forced to move a valuable painting he is deeply attached to Belgium. During the journey, he deals with the loss of his husband, a restorer at the museum, while his daughter, Laia, discovers family secrets in Madrid. When Manel realises that he will have to part with the painting for good, his irrationality is unleashed, taking him on a journey into the unknown.
