

DRIFT (BEATS OF LOVE)

DERIVA (L'AMOR A BATZEGADES)

BY ALBA CROS

Deriva (L'amor a batzegades) is presented as a visual and intimate essay through the reflections that Saó, its protagonist, has on love and its expression. The city of Barcelona as a space where these emotions emerge, from the sexual intimacies shared among the bushes of Montjuic, to the sisterhood of the combat teammates, through Dolors, a historical lesbian whom Saó takes care of and learns from. A dialogue between reality and utopia, between fiction and truth itself, which will lead her to find herself incapable of loving when, in reality, it is what she wants the most.
