HAMBURGO

BY LINO ESCALERA

Germán (Jaime Lorente) is not an ordinary driver: he is in charge of transporting women who work in brothels on the Costa del Sol. He tries to get by working for Cacho (Roger Casamajor), an old friend who runs several of these clubs for a local mafia. One night, he finds himself with an opportunity to leave all that behind by stealing the club's takings. What seems like a chance to change his life will put him in more danger than ever. He has only one option left, the same one that the girls like Alina (Iona Bugarin) think of every night he drives around: to escape.
