GRAN SILENCIO

BY LAURA SISTERÓ

BÁRBARA (50), a prestigious journalist, is demoted to cover alien sightings in a valley. Bored and despotic, she avoids investigating the aliens and focuses on finding out who is leaving the dead sheep in burnt circles and why. But one night she contacts a strange being who makes her feel small and, for the first time, she glimpses her traumas of abandonment and loneliness. The next day, a man is found murdered in the same conditions as the sheep and Barbara, against her intuition, is pressured to publish the news that could revitalise her: 'We are not alone'. In the midst of the media circus, she connects with Pol, a teenager who has also been contacted, and together they discover a painful truth.
